2024 CALIFORNIA AEROSPACE DAY

JOIN US FOR AN EXCITING ONE-DAY EVENT CELEBRATING CALIFORNIA'S AEROSPACE INDUSTRY

Join the California Manufacturers & Technology Association (CMTA) and the Aerospace & Defense Alliance of California (ADAC) as we celebrate the achievements of California's brightest minds in the aerospace industry on June 5, 2024! Spend the day at the California Aerospace Museum, learning from the best while recognizing the hard work and dedication of the scientists, engineers, and innovators who have made all of this possible.

California has been at the forefront of space exploration for decades. The state's aerospace industry supports more than 511,000 high-paying jobs, generates more than $66.2 billion in annual economic activity, and generates $7 billion in state and local taxes.
